CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP (IF APPLICABLE)

Corporate Memberships are held by a corporation or firm (which is considered to be the "Applicant" for all purposes). A designee is named by the corporation as the person entitled to use the membership (the "Corporate Designee"). There shall be only one (1) Corporate Designee for each Corporate Membership, but the Corporate Designee may be changed by the corporation from time to time, subject to the approval of the Club's Board of Directors and payment of the redesignation fee (as of the date of change). The membership card will be issued in the name of the Corporate Designee. As a duly authorized officer of the corporation named, the undersigned officer certifies and agrees that said corporation is jointly responsible with the Corporate Designee for all dues and charges incurred by its Corporate Designee and guests.

REFUND AND RESIGNATION

IT IS AGREED THAT the applicant may resign from SBCC by giving written notice to SBCC. The effective date of the resignation will be the date SBCC receives the applicant's written notice. All accrued dues and other charges for which the applicant is liable are due upon effective date of resignation. No stock shall be transferred or sold except to a surviving spouse or in the case of a corporate membership, as is provided in the bylaws. The applicant agrees that in the event of a corporate reorganization or personal divorce, this membership is not divisible, and this membership shall be allocated by agreement of all claimants, or in the absence of agreement, by court order. Such allocations are subject to the sole approval of the Board of Directors. The successor to the membership shall execute all necessary papers and pay all allocation fees required by SBCC. Membership does not confer any ownership of SBCC's property or assets.

BYLAWS

Applicant and Corporate Designee (if applicable) agree to conform to and be bound by the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of SBCC, as they are amended from time to time.
